

Cover Letter of Enteni Dewal Links

My Name is Enteni Dewal Links. I am a 42 year old coloured male. I am dedicated and self-motivated professional with more than 20 years of experience managing multiple tasks and projects simultaneously within a team environment or autonomously. Extensive experience accumulated in people management, communication, internal employee training, spatial and non-spatial data capturing, problem-solving, quality analysis, report writing and a passion for providing excellent customer service at all times.

I am a team player, with excellent negotiation and pronounced interpersonal skills. These are combined with analytical thinking skills and the ability to process and resolve bottlenecks.

Interest and ability in learning and incorporating new technology to improve efficiency and productivity ensuring an overall reduction in operational costs. Able to design and improve processes and flows, project scopes, and quality plans with a clear sense of responsibility and accountability. Keen for an opportunity to develop and, further improve my skills for a rewarding and fulfilling career with a world-class organization where employee loyalty and dedication are valued.

The last organisation I was employed at before my retrenchment on March 2019 earned me a wage of R15,000 per month after deductions with benefits.

I also do inherit a clean record with a reference letter from my previous employment.

Kind Regards

Enteni Dewal Links
